

FLORIDA GULF COAST UNIVERSITY

RETIREMENT PLAYBOOK

IRS contribution limits to 457(b) and 403(b) do not compete. Begin contributing to both, today!

As a University employee, you have options. The Deferred Compensation Plan is a 457(b) retirement plan available to all university employees. The chart below shows how making contributions to both your Deferred Compensation Plan 457(b) and your voluntary 403(b) account can dramatically boost your retirement savings. Participants who maximize both their Deferred Compensation Plan 457(b) and voluntary 403(b) accounts are better able to meet their retirement savings goals.

Key Benefits of the Plan

- Easy to understand fee structure
- Penalty-free withdrawals after separation from employment
- Lower current taxable income through automatic pre-tax payroll contribution
- Excellent investment options, including Fixed Accounts, Target Date Funds, and numerous Mutual Funds
- Penalty-free account modification, such as contribution change, investment reallocation, and Investment Provider addition/replacement
- Rollover other pre-tax retirement accounts into the Florida Deferred Compensation Plan
- Dedicated customer service and professional investment performance oversight from the Bureau of Deferred Compensation and the Plan's Investment Providers
- Immediate vesting

PLAY TO WIN!

Participate in the 457(b), even if you participate in the 403(b) tax sheltered annuity

This chart is for illustrative purposes only and is not meant to represent the performance of any specific investment option. The scenario assumes a 7% annual rate of return, a maximized Regular contribution for the first 20 years, and a maximized Ages 50+ contribution for the remaining 10 years for both the 403(b) and the 457(b). Rates of return will vary.

ENROLLMENT FORM

Deferred Compensation is not part of your Florida Retirement System (FRS) plan and is not affiliated with your 3% contribution to the FRS. You decide the amount of your pre-tax contributions and delay paying taxes on the money you invest until you take a withdrawal. Upon leaving employment, you can take a withdrawal at any age without a penalty or you may leave your assets in the plan to continue to be invested.
