Title: FLORIDA FIREFIGHTER MINIMUM STANDARDS CERTIFICATION

Release Date: July 1, 2013

To be a career Firefighter in the State of Florida, an individual must submit an Application for Certification as a Firefighter II, and successfully complete the Firefighter Minimum Standards Course, or have received an equivalent amount of training in another state (or country) which has been determined by the division to be at least the equivalent of the training required for the Minimum Standards Course, pass the state written and practical examinations, as required by Florida State Statute, and possess the qualifications in Florida State Statute 633.412.

An individual who holds a Volunteer Firefighter Certificate of Completion may enter the Firefighter Minimum Standards Course at the start of the Firefighter II training, if permissible by the Certified Training Center.

The Firefighter Minimum Standards Course is offered at numerous Certified Training Centers located throughout the state. Each training center has a unique course and fee schedule. For further information, contact the training center of your choice.
