Floridians,

As Florida's Chief Financial Officer, I am charged with the great responsibility of safeguarding your hard-earned money. By arresting criminals who commit insurance fraud, I am doing just that. Insurance fraud is a very serious crime, one that impacts every single Floridian.

Recently, former NFL player and assistant coach Marlon Tarron McCree was arrested by my office for false and fraudulent insurance claims related to false dental claim submissions, totaling nearly $78,000. Scams like this one drive up the cost of insurance coverage for us all.

Whether it is health insurance billing fraud, storm damage fraud or life insurance policy fraud, each crime impacts your bottom line. My office remains committed to protecting you from fraud.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Patronis
Chief Financial Officer
State of Florida
