Floridians,

January 8, 2019, is a day I will never forget — Inauguration Day. Being sworn-in to continue serving as Florida's Chief Financial Officer with my family by my side meant the world to me. I am truly thankful and honored to keep up my work for our great state for another four years.

As our state's financial watchdog, my top priorities over the coming years will be to continue fighting against insurance fraud; securing additional benefits for Florida's first responders; increasing small business prosperity by fostering economic growth and safeguarding our financial stability; as well as protecting Floridians from being taken advantage of financially.

I look forward to working together to help build a stronger, better Florida.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Patronis
Chief Financial Officer
