Floridians,

Two years ago tomorrow, Hurricane Michael devastated the Florida Panhandle and my hometown of Panama City. Every resident in the Panhandle was affected by this massive storm and my family and I will never forget the heartbreak it caused our friends, neighbors, and the great people of Northwest Florida.

Two years later, I am proud that as a community, we have worked together to make vital strides in rebuilding our neighborhoods, schools and businesses. It hasn't been easy but every day we take one more step towards coming back better and stronger than before. While there is still much work to be done to fully recover from the devastating impacts of Hurricane Michael, one thing I learned is that Floridians are resilient, and our Panhandle communities will forever be 850 Strong.

Panhandle residents in need of insurance assistance related to Hurricane Michael, please call my Insurance Consumer Helpline at 1-877-MY-FL-CFO (693-5236) to speak with one of our knowledgeable insurance specialists. Since landfall, our team has recovered more than $33 million on behalf of Hurricane Michael victims.

Unfortunately, the 2020 Hurricane Season is far from over and today Hurricane Delta is projected to rip through the Gulf Coast as a dangerous storm causing mass flooding and damage. Please keep our friends and family in the Gulf Coast in your thoughts and prayers for a safe recovery as they weather this storm and visit PrepareFL.com for disaster tips and resources to ensure you are protected.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Patronis
