ORDER APPOINTING THE FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF
FINANCIAL SERVICES AS RECEIVER FOR PURPOSES OF
IMMEDIATE REHABILITATION AND LIQUIDATION EFFECTIVE
APRIL 1, 2013, INJUNCTION, AND NOTICE OF AUTOMATIC STAY

THIS CAUSE was considered on the Application of the State of Florida, Department of Financial Services (hereinafter the "Department") for an Order to Show Cause on the appointment of a Receiver of Universal Health Care, Inc. (hereinafter the "Respondent" or "UHC") for Purposes of Liquidation and Request for Expedited Hearing filed on February 4, 2013 (hereinafter, "Application"). After consideration, this Court entered its Amended Order to Show Cause, Injunction and Automatic Stay, on February 18, 2013, which scheduled the Show Cause hearing for March 21, 2013 at 9:00 am. Pursuant to the Amended Order to Show Cause, Respondent was to file its response to the Amended Order to Show Cause no later than March 6, 2013. Respondent failed to respond to the Amended Order to Show Cause, and on March 7, 2013, the Department filed a Motion for Entry of Order Finding Universal Health Care, Inc. and Universal Health Care Insurance Company, Inc. in Violation of Amended Order to Show Cause, For Order of Liquidation, and for Other Related Relief (the Department's Motion). A hearing was conducted on the Department's Motion on March 13, 2013, wherein the Department and Respondent appeared before the Court. Based upon the argument and ultimately the stipulation presented by the Department and Respondent at the March 13, 2012 hearing, the Court entered its March 18, 2012 Order on Department of Financial Services' Motion for Entry of Order Finding Universal Health Care, Inc. and Universal Health Care Insurance Company, Inc. in Violation of Amended Orders to Show Cause, for Order of Liquidation, and Other Related Relief (the March 18 Order), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A." Based upon the agreement of the parties announced in open court at the March 13, 2012 hearing, the March 18 Order found that Respondent is insolvent, and gave Respondent until 9:00 a.m. on March 21, 2013 to meet all statutory and surplus requirements of Florida law to the satisfaction of the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation (OIR). The March 18 Order further specified that Citrus Universal Healthcare, Inc. (Citrus) or any potential purchaser of Respondent had until 9:00 a.m. on March 21, 2013 to submit a complete "Form A" to OIR's satisfaction, and to meet all statutory capital and surplus requirements of Florida law to OIR's satisfaction, based upon Respondent's January 31, 2013 financial statements.

Pursuant to the February 18, 2013 Amended Order to Show Cause, a hearing was held on March 21, 2013, at which the Department presented evidence that Respondent had failed to meet all statutory and surplus requirements of Florida law to the satisfaction of OIR, as required by the March 18 Order, and therefore remained insolvent. The Department also presented evidence establishing that neither Citrus nor any other potential purchaser of Respondent had met the requirements of the March 18 Order.

The Court, having reviewed and considered the pleadings of record, heard the evidence of the parties and arguments of counsel, and otherwise being fully informed in the premises, finds:

1. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Section 631.021(1), Florida Statutes, and venue is proper pursuant to Section 631.021(2), Florida Statutes.

2. Respondent is a corporation authorized pursuant to the Florida Insurance Code to transact business in the State of Florida as a health maintenance organization (HMO) since 2003. Respondent's principal place of business is located at 100 Central Avenue, Suite 200, St. Petersburg, Florida 33701.

3. Section 631.021(3), Florida Statutes, provides that a delinquency proceeding pursuant to Chapter 631, Florida Statutes, constitutes the sole and exclusive method of liquidating, rehabilitating, reorganizing, or conserving a Florida domiciled insurer.

4. Sections 631.031 and 631.061, Florida Statutes, authorize the Department to apply to this Court for an Order directing it to liquidate a domestic insurer upon the existence of any grounds specified in Section 631.051, Florida Statutes, or if an insurer is or is about to become insolvent.

5. Section 631.031 directs the Department to initiate such delinquency proceedings after receiving notification from the Director of the Office of Insurance Regulation as to the existing grounds for the initiation of such proceedings.

6. On February 1, 2013, pursuant to Section 631.031(1), Florida Statutes, Kevin McCarty, Commissioner of the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation ("Office"), advised by letter to Florida's Chief Financial Officer, Jeff Atwater, that the Office had determined that grounds existed for the initiation of delinquency proceedings against Respondent.

7. Respondent is found by the office to be impaired or insolvent, and therefore in such condition as to render its further transaction of insurance hazardous to its policyholders, creditors, stockholders, or the public. Sections 631.051(1) and (3), Florida Statutes. Accordingly, grounds exist pursuant to Sections 631.051(1) and (3) and 631.061 for entry of an Order appointing the Department as receiver of Respondent for purposes of Rehabilitation, with an effective Liquidation date of April 1, 2013.

8. Pursuant to Sections 631.051 and 631.061, Florida Statutes, this Court finds that it is in the best interests of Respondent, its creditors and its members that the relief requested in the Department's Application be granted. The Court further finds the Respondent to be insolvent pursuant to Sections 631.051(1) and 631.061(1), Florida Statutes.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

9. The Department of Financial Services of the State of Florida shall be and is hereby appointed Receiver of Respondent for purposes of rehabilitation, effective immediately, and to liquidate Respondent effective 12:01 a.m. on April 1, 2013 without further order of this Court.

10. The Receiver shall be authorized and directed to:

A. Take immediate possession of all the property, assets, and estate, and all other property of every kind whatsoever and wherever located belonging to Respondent pursuant to Sections 631.111 and 631.141, Florida Statutes, including but not limited to: offices maintained by Respondent, rights of action, books, papers, electronic records, evidences of debt, bank accounts, savings accounts, certificates of deposit, stocks, bonds, debentures and other securities, mortgages, furniture, fixtures, office supplies and equipment, wherever situate and however titled, whether in the possession of Respondent or its officers, directors, shareholders, trustees, employees, consultants, attorneys, agents or affiliates and all real property of Respondent, wherever situate, whether in the possession of Respondent or its officers, directors, shareholders, trustees, employees, consultants, attorneys, agents or affiliates, or other persons.

B. Liquidate the assets of Respondent effective April 1, 2013, including but not limited to, funds held by Respondent's agents, subagents, producing agents, brokers, solicitors, service representatives or others under agency contracts or otherwise which are due and unpaid to Respondent, including premiums, unearned commissions, agents' balances, agents' reserve funds, and subrogation recoveries.

C. Employ and authorize the compensation of legal counsel, actuaries, accountants, clerks, consultants, and such assistants as it deems necessary, purchase or lease personal or real property as it deems necessary, and authorize the payment of the expenses of these proceedings and the necessary incidents thereof, as approved by the Court, to be paid out of the funds or assets of the Respondent in the possession of the Receiver or coming into its possession.

D. Reimburse such employees, from the funds of this receivership, for their actual necessary and reasonable expenses incurred while traveling on the business of this receivership.

E. Not defend or accept service of process on legal actions wherein Respondent, the Receiver, or the insured is a party defendant, commenced either prior to or subsequent to the order, without authorization of this Court; except, however, in actions where Respondent is a nominal party, as in certain foreclosure actions, and the action does not affect a claim against or adversely affect the assets of Respondent, the Receiver may file appropriate pleadings in its discretion.

F. Commence and maintain all legal actions necessary, wherever necessary, for the proper administration of this receivership proceeding.

G. Collect all debts which are economically feasible to collect which are due and owing to Respondent.

H. Deposit funds and maintain bank accounts in accordance with Section 631.221, Florida Statutes.

I. Take possession of all of Respondent's securities and certificates of deposit on deposit with the Chief Financial Officer of Florida or any similar official of any other state, if any, and convert to cash as much as may be necessary, in its judgment, to pay the expenses of administration of this receivership.

J. Publish notice specifying the time and place fixed for the filing of claims with the Receiver once each week for three consecutive weeks in the Florida Administrative Weekly published by the Secretary of State, and at least once in the Florida Bar News and to publish notice by similar methods in all states where Respondents may have issued insurance policies.

K. Negotiate and settle subrogation claims and Final Judgments without further order of this Court.

L. Sell any salvage recovered property without further order of this Court.

M. Coordinate the operation of the Receivership with the Florida Health Maintenance Organization Consumer Assistance Plan ("FHMOCAP") pursuant to Part IV, Chapter 631, Florida Statutes, as may be necessary, primarily for the one known commercial member of Respondent. The Receiver may in its discretion, contract with the FHMOCAP to provide services as are necessary to carry out the purposes of Chapter 631.

N. Give notice of this proceeding to Respondent's agents pursuant to Section 631.341, Florida Statutes, and to its insureds, if any.

O. For purposes of this Order, the term "affiliate" shall be defined in accordance with Section 631.011(1), Florida Statutes and includes but is not limited to Universal Health Care Insurance Company, Inc., Universal Health Care Group, Inc., and American Managed Care, LLC.

P. The Receiver is granted all of the powers of the Respondent's directors, officers, and managers, whose authority is hereby suspended, except as such powers are re-delegated in writing by the Receiver. The Receiver has full power to direct and manage the affairs of Respondent, to hire and discharge employees, and to deal with the property and business of the Respondent.

Q. Apply to this Court for further instructions in the discharge of its duties as the Receiver deems necessary.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DIRECTED:

11. Any officer, director, manager, trustee, administrator, attorney, agent, accountant, actuary, broker, employee, adjuster, independent contractor, or affiliate of Respondent and any other person who possesses or possessed any executive authority over, or who exercises or exercised any control over, any segment of Respondent's affairs or the affairs of its affiliates shall be required to fully cooperate with the Receiver, pursuant to Section 631.391, Florida Statutes, notwithstanding the provisions of the above paragraph. Any person who fails to cooperate with the Receiver, interferes with the Receiver, or fails to follow the instructions of the Receiver, may, at the Receiver's discretion, be excluded from Respondent's business premises.

12. Title to all property, real or personal, all contracts, rights of action and all books and records of Respondent, wherever located, is vested in the Receiver pursuant to Sections 631.111 and 631.141, Florida Statutes.

13. All officers, directors, trustees, administrators, agents and employees and all other persons representing Respondent or currently employed or utilized by Respondent in connection with the conduct of its business are discharged forthwith; provided, however, the Receiver may retain such persons in the Receiver's discretion.

14. All attorneys employed by Respondent as of the date of the Order, within 10 days of receiving notice of this Order, are required to report to the Receiver on the name, company claim number and status of each file they are handling on behalf of the Respondent. Said report shall also include an accounting of any funds received from or on behalf of the Respondent. All attorneys employed by Respondent shall be discharged as of the date of this Order unless their services are retained by the Receiver. All attorneys employed by Respondent shall be advised that pursuant to Section 631.011(21), Florida Statutes, a claim based on mere possession does not create a secured claim and all attorneys employed by Respondent, pursuant to In Re the Receivership of Syndicate Two, Inc., 538 So.2d 945 (Fla. 1st DCA 1989), who are in possession of litigation files or other material, documents, or records belonging to or relating to work performed by the attorney on behalf of Respondent, shall be required to deliver such litigation files, material, documents or records intact and without purging to the Receiver, on request, notwithstanding any claim of a retaining lien which, if otherwise valid, shall not be extinguished by the delivery of these documents.

15. All agents, brokers or other persons having sold policies of insurance and/or collected premiums on behalf of the Respondent shall be required to account for and pay all premiums and commissions unearned due to cancellation of policies by this Order or in the normal course of business owed to the Respondent, directly to Receiver within 30 days of demand by the Receiver or appear before this Court to show cause, if any they may have, as to why they shall not be required to account to the Receiver or be held in contempt of Court for violation of the provisions of this Order. No agent, broker, premium finance company or other person shall use premium monies owed to the Respondent for refund of unearned premium or for any purpose other than payment to the Receiver.

16. Any premium finance company which has entered into a contract to finance a premium for a policy which has been issued by the Respondent shall be required to pay any premium owed to the Respondent directly to the Receiver.

17. Reinsurance premiums due to or payable by Respondent shall be remitted to, or disbursed by, the Receiver. Reinsurance losses recoverable or payable by Respondent shall be handled by the Receiver. All correspondence concerning reinsurance shall be between the Receiver and the reinsuring company or intermediary.

18. Upon request by the Receiver, any company providing telephonic services to Respondent shall be required to provide a reference of calls from the number presently assigned to Respondent to any such number designated by the Receiver or perform any other services or changes necessary to the conduct of the receivership.

19. Any bank, savings and loan association, or other financial institution which has on deposit, or in its possession, custody or control of any funds, accounts and any other assets of Respondent, shall be required to immediately transfer title, custody and control of all such funds, accounts and other assets to the Receiver. The Receiver shall be authorized to change the name of such accounts and other assets, withdraw them from such bank, savings and loan association or other financial institution, or take any lesser action necessary for the proper conduct of this receivership. No bank, savings and loan association or other financial institution shall be permitted to exercise any form of set-off, alleged set-off, lien, any form of self-help whatsoever, or refuse to transfer any funds or assets to the Receiver's control without the permission of this Court.

20. Any entity furnishing telephone, water, electric, sewage, garbage or trash removal services to Respondent shall be required to maintain such service and transfer any such accounts to the Receiver as of the date of this Order, unless instructed to the contrary by the Receiver.

21. Any data processing service, which has custody or control of any data processing information and records including but not limited to source documents, data processing cards, input tapes, all types of storage information, master tapes or any other recorded information relating to Respondent, is directed to transfer custody and control of such records to the Receiver. The Receiver shall be authorized to compensate any such entity for the actual use of hardware and software which the Receiver finds to be necessary to this proceeding. Compensation should be based upon the monthly rate provided for in contracts or leases with Respondent which was in effect when this proceeding was instituted, or based upon such contract as may be negotiated by the Receiver, for the actual time such equipment and software is used by the Receiver.

22. The United States Postal Service shall be authorized to provide any information requested by the Receiver regarding Respondent and to handle future deliveries of Respondent's mail as directed by the Receiver.

23. All claims shall be filed with the Receiver on or before 11:59:59 p.m. EST, on the date of one year following the entry of this Order, or be forever barred, and all such claims shall be filed on proof of claim forms prepared by the Receiver.

24. In order to assure the validity of claim assignments, to assure that the processing of assignments does not create an undue burden on estate resources, and to assure that assignment decisions are made using the best information available, the Receiver shall not recognize or accept any assignment of claim by the claimant of record unless the following criteria are met:

- A. A distribution petition has not been filed with this Court;
- B. The Receiver has been provided with a properly executed and notarized assignment of claim agreement entered into between the parties; and

C. The Receiver has been provided with a properly executed and notarized Receiver's Assignment of Claim Change Form and required supporting documentation.

D. The Receiver's Assignment of Claim Change Form shall contain an acknowledgement by the claimant, or someone authorized to act on behalf of the claimant, that:

1. The claimant is aware that financial information regarding claims distributions and payments published on the Receiver's website or otherwise available can assist the claimant in making an independent and informed decision regarding the sale of the claim;

2. The claimant understands that the purchase price being offered in exchange for the assignment may differ from the amount ultimately distributed in the receivership proceeding with respect to the claim;

3. It is the claimant's intent to sell their claim and have the Receiver's records be permanently changed to reflect the new owner; and

4. The claimant understands that they will no longer have any title, interest, or rights to the claim including future mailings and distributions if they occur.

25. All executory contracts to which the Respondent was a party shall be cancelled and stand cancelled as of the liquidation date of April 1, 2013, unless specifically adopted by the Receiver within ninety (90) days of the liquidation date or from the date of the Receiver's actual knowledge of the existence of such contract, whichever is later. "Actual Knowledge" means the Receiver has in its possession a written contract to which the Respondent is a party, and the Receiver has notified the vendor in writing acknowledging the existence of the contract.

Further, the Receiver shall have the authority to do the following:

1) Pay for services provided by any of Respondent's vendors, in the ninety (90) day period prior to assuming or rejecting the contract, which are necessary to administer the Receivership estate;

2) Once the Receiver determines Respondent's vendor is necessary in the continued administration of the Receivership estate for a period to exceed the ninety (90) days from the liquidation date, or from the date of Receiver's actual knowledge of such contract, whichever is later, the Receiver may make minimal modifications to the terms of the contract, including, but not limited to, the expiration date of the agreement, the scope of the services to be provided, and/or the compensation to be paid to Respondent's vendor pursuant to the contract. "Minimal Modifications" shall mean any minimum alteration made to the contract in order to adapt to the new circumstances of the Receivership estate. In no event will any minimal modification be construed as the Receiver entering into a new contract with Respondent's vendor.

Any vendor, including but not limited to, any and all employees / contractors of Respondent, claiming the existence of a contractual relationship with Respondent, shall provide notice to the Receiver of such relationship. This notice shall include any and all documents and information regarding the terms and conditions of the contract, including a copy of the written contract between the vendor and the insurer, if any, what services or goods were provided pursuant to the contract, any current, future and/or past due amounts owing under the contract, and any supporting documentation for third party services or goods provided. Failure to provide the required information may result in vendors' contractual rights not being recognized by the Receiver. The rights of the parties to any such contracts are fixed as of the liquidation date and any cancellation under this provision shall not be treated as an anticipatory breach of such contracts.

26. All affiliated companies and associations, including but not limited to Universal Health Care Insurance Company, Inc., Universal Health Care Group, Inc., and American Managed Care, LLC., shall make their books and records available to the Receiver (including electronic records), to include all records located in any premises occupied by said affiliate, whether corporate records or not, and to provide copies of any records requested by the Receiver whether or not such records are related to Respondent. The Receiver shall have title to all policy files and other records of, and relating to Respondent, whether such documents are kept in offices occupied by an affiliate company or any other person, corporation, or association. The Receiver shall be authorized to take possession of any such records, files, and documents, and to remove them to any location in the Receiver's discretion. Any disputed records shall not be withheld from the Receiver's review, but shall be safeguarded and presented to this Court for review prior to copying by the Receiver. The Receiver has authority to dispose of obsolete records without further Court order.

27. The Receiver shall have complete access to and administrative control of all information technology resources of the Respondent and its affiliates at all times including, but not limited to, Respondent's computer hardware, software and peripherals. Each affiliate shall be given reasonable access to such records for the purpose of carrying out its business operations.

28. Any person, firm, corporation or other entity having notice of this Order that fails to abide by its terms is directed to appear before this Court to show good cause, if any they may have, as to why they shall not be held in contempt of Court for violation of the provisions of this Order.

29. Except as noted in the following paragraph, pursuant to the provisions of 631.252, Florida Statutes, all policies of insurance or similar contracts of coverage that have not expired are cancelled effective 12:01 a.m. EST on April 1, 2013. Policies or contracts of coverage with normal expiration dates prior to the dates otherwise applicable under this paragraph, or which are terminated by insureds or lawfully cancelled by the Receiver or insurer before such date, shall stand cancelled as of the earlier date.

30. Respondent is known to have issued health care coverage to one commercial (i.e., non-Medicare or non-Medicaid) insured. The one contract of coverage issued to that commercial insured/member in Florida and now in force shall continue in force pursuant to the provisions of Part IV, Chapter 631, Florida Statutes.

31. Pursuant to Sections 631.041(3) and (4), Florida Statutes, all persons, firms, corporations and associations within the jurisdiction of this Court, including, but not limited to, Respondent and its officers, directors, stockholders, members, subscribers, agents and employees, are enjoined and restrained from the further transaction of the insurance business of the Respondent following the April 1, 2013 liquidation; from doing, doing through omission, or permitting to be done any action which might waste or dispose of the books, records, including but not limited to electronic records, and assets of the Respondent; from in any way interfering with the Receiver or these proceedings; from the transfer of property and assets of Respondent without the consent of the Receiver; from the removal, concealment, or other disposition of Respondent's property, books, records, and accounts; from the commencement or prosecution of any actions against the Respondent or the Receiver together with its agents or employees, the service of process and subpoenas, or the obtaining of preferences, judgments, writs of attachment or garnishment or other liens; and, from the making of any levy or execution against Respondent or any of its property or assets. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, the Receiver should be permitted to accept and be subpoenaed for non-party production of claims files in its possession, including medical records, which may be contained therein. In such cases, the requesting party must submit an affidavit to the Receiver stating that notice of the non-party production was appropriately issued and provided to the patient and that the patient was given the opportunity to object and either did not object to the non-party production, or objected and the Court overruled the objection, in which case a copy of the Court's ruling must be attached to the affidavit. The Receiver should be authorized to impose a charge for copies of such claim files pursuant to the provisions of Sections 119.07(1)(a), and 624.501, Florida Statutes.

32. All subsidiaries, affiliates, parent corporations, ultimate parent corporations, and any other business entity affiliated with Respondent shall fully cooperate with the Receiver in the effort to liquidate Respondent.

33. All subsidiaries, affiliates, parent corporations, ultimate parent corporations, and any other business entity affiliated with Respondent having any interest in the building located at 100 Central Avenue, Suite 200, St. Petersburg, Florida, 33701, or any other facility in which Respondent may operate, shall make available, at that location and at no charge to the Receiver or to Respondent, office space, and related facilities (telephone service, copiers, computer equipment and software, office supplies, parking, etc.) to the extent deemed necessary by the Receiver in its sole discretion.

34. All subsidiaries, affiliates, parent corporations, ultimate parent corporations, and any other business entity affiliated with Respondent having any interest in the computer equipment and software currently used by or for Respondent shall make such computer equipment and software available to the Receiver or Respondent to the extent deemed necessary by the Receiver in its sole discretion. The Receiver shall be authorized to compensate any such entity for the actual use of hardware and software which the Receiver finds to be necessary to this proceeding. Compensation should be based upon the monthly rate provided for in contracts or leases with Respondent which was in effect when this proceeding was instituted, or based upon such contract as may be negotiated by the Receiver, for the actual time such equipment and software is used by the Receiver.

CONTINUATION OF INVESTIGATION

35. The Receiver shall be authorized to conduct an investigation as authorized by Section 631.391, Florida Statutes, of Respondent and its affiliates, as defined above, to uncover and make fully available to the Court the true state of Respondent's financial affairs. In furtherance of this investigation, Respondent and its affiliates shall be required to make all books, documents, accounts, records, and affairs, which either belong to or pertain to Respondent, available for full, free and unhindered inspection and examination by the Receiver during normal business hours (8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.) Monday through Friday, from the date of this Order. Respondent, its affiliates, officers, directors, employees, and agents shall be required to cooperate with the Receiver to the fullest extent required by Section 631.391, Florida Statutes. Such cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, the taking of oral testimony under oath of Respondent's officers, directors, managers, trustees, agents, adjusters, employees, or independent contractors of Respondent, its affiliates and any other person who possesses any executive authority over, or who exercises any control over, any segment of the affairs of Respondent in both their official, representative and individual capacities, and the production of all documents that are calculated to disclose the true state of Respondent's affairs.

36. Any officer, director, manager, trustee, administrator, attorney, agent, accountant, actuary, broker, employee, adjuster, independent contractor, or affiliate of Respondent, and any other person who possesses or possessed any executive authority over, or who exercises or exercised any control over, any segment of the affairs of Respondent or its affiliates shall be required to fully cooperate with the Receiver as required by Section 631.391, Florida Statutes, and as set out in the preceding paragraph. Upon receipt of a certified copy of this Order, any bank or financial institution shall be required to immediately disclose to the Receiver the existence of any accounts of Respondent and any funds contained therein and any and all documents in its possession relating to Respondent for the Receiver's inspection and copying.

37. All Sheriffs and all law enforcement officials of this state shall cooperate with and assist the Receiver in the implementation of this Order.

38. In the event the Receiver determines that reorganization, consolidation, conversion, reinsurance, merger, or other transformation of the Respondent is appropriate, the Receiver shall prepare a plan to effect such changes and submit the plan to this Court for consideration.

NOTICE OF AUTOMATIC STAY

39. Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to Section 631.041(1), Florida Statutes, the filing of the Department's initial petition herein operates as an automatic stay applicable to all persons and entities, other than the Receiver, which shall be permanent and survive the entry of this order, and which prohibits:

A. The commencement or continuation of judicial, administrative or other action or proceeding against Respondent or against its assets or any part thereof;

B. The enforcement of any judgment against Respondent or an affiliate, provided that such affiliate is owned by or constitutes an asset of Respondent, obtained either before or after the commencement of the delinquency proceeding;

C. Any act to obtain possession of property of Respondent;

D. Any act to create, perfect or enforce a lien against property of Respondent, except a secured claim as defined in Section 631.011(21), Florida Statutes;

E. Any action to collect, assess or recover a claim against Respondent, except claims as provided for under Chapter 631;

F. The set-off or offset of any debt owing to Respondent, except offsets as provided in Section 631.281, Florida Statutes.

40. Notwithstanding anything herein ordered to the contrary, the Receiver shall take no action against Universal Health Care Group, Inc. in violation of the automatic stay resulting from the action pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court, Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, Chapter 11, Case No. 8:13-bk-01520-KRM, or any orders issued therein. In the event of any question as to whether or not any action by the Receiver is a violation of the stay or any such order, the same shall be addressed to the judge presiding over said proceeding.

41. This Court retains jurisdiction of this cause for the purpose of granting such other and further relief as from time to time shall be deemed appropriate.

DONE and ORDERED in Chambers at the Leon County Courthouse in Tallahassee, Florida this 21st day of March, 2013.
