

2016 at 9:30 a.m. or as soon thereafter as the Court could hear the matter. A copy of the Order was served on Defendants through their counsel.

3. On November 7, 2016, Defendants filed a Motion for Continuance, which was granted by the Clerk of Court. The contempt hearing was rescheduled for November 28, 2016.
4. As part of a compromised settlement to resolve the allegations to be adjudicated at the contempt hearing, the parties admit to the following stipulated facts:
 - a. Plaintiff, North Carolina Board of Funeral Service, is an agency of the State of North Carolina created under the authority of Article 13A, Chapter 90 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, and having its principal office in Raleigh, Wake County, North Carolina.
 - b. Defendant Anthony Joseph Damiano (“A.J. Damiano”) is a citizen and resident of Colorado and/or Florida.
 - c. Defendant Joseph Damiano, Sr. (“Joseph Damiano”) is a citizen and resident of Colorado and/or Florida.
 - d. Defendant Heritage Cremation Provider, LLC (“Heritage”) is a limited liability company organized in both Florida and Colorado. Heritage’s mailing address is P.O. Box 26806, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33320 and 1755 Telstar Drive, Colorado Springs, CO 80920. Heritage uses the website URL: www.heritagecremationprovider.com. The phone number listed for Heritage is 1-800-972-2070.
 - e. Heritage is managed by Joseph Damiano and is owned by AJ Damiano.
 - f. Defendant Legacy Funeral Services, LLC d/b/a Legacy Funeral and Cremation

(“Legacy”) is a limited liability company organized in Colorado. Legacy’s mailing address is 9800 Mount Pyramid Court, Denver CO 80112. Legacy uses the website URL: www.legacycremationservices.com. The phone number listed for Legacy is 1-800-972-2070.

- g. Legacy is managed by Joseph Damiano.
- h. Neither Heritage nor Legacy, nor any of its owners or employees, possesses any license or permit issued by the Board.
- i. Neither A.J. Damiano nor Joseph Damiano is licensed as a funeral director or funeral service licensee by the Board.
- j. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 90-210.20(k) defines the “Practice of funeral service” as follows:

(k) “Practice of funeral service” means engaging in the care or disposition of dead human bodies or in the practice of disinfecting and preparing by embalming or otherwise dead human bodies for the funeral service, transportation, burial or cremation, or in the practice of funeral directing or embalming as presently known, whether under these titles or designations or otherwise. “Practice of funeral service” also means engaging in making arrangements for funeral service, selling funeral supplies to the public or making financial arrangements for the rendering of such services or the sale of such supplies.

- k. In March 2016, Defendants engaged in the unlicensed practice of funeral services, in violation of N.C. Gen. Stat. § 90-210.25.
- l. On May 10, 2016, the Board filed a Complaint in Wake County Superior Court (Case No. 16 CVS 006190) against the Defendants, asking the Court to permanently enjoin Defendants from the practice of funeral service in North Carolina until such time that they become properly licensed.

m. On September 16, 2016, the Honorable Judge Stephens signed a Consent Judgment and ordered that:

- I. Defendants shall not engage in the practice of funeral services, as that phrase is defined in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 90-210.20(k), until such time, if any, that the Plaintiff may approve Defendants to practice funeral services under the provisions of Chapter 90, Articles 13A – 13F, of the North Carolina General Statutes or until such time, if any, that the North Carolina General Assembly may permit otherwise via statute. Defendants understand and agree that for purposes of this Consent Judgment, the definition of the practice of funeral services includes the rendering of services as set out in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 90-210.20(k) and holding oneself out to the public as being able to provide funeral services.
- II. Until such time, if any, that the Plaintiff may approve Defendants to practice funeral services under the provisions of Chapter 90, Articles 13A – 13F, of the North Carolina General Statutes or until such time, if any, that the North Carolina General Assembly may permit otherwise via statute, Defendants shall cease the practice of funeral services in the state of North Carolina as defined in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 90-210.20(k). Further, Defendants agree to not hold themselves out to the public, implicitly or explicitly, as being able to provide funeral services in North Carolina as defined in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 90-210.20(k). This does not prohibit a Defendant from advertising that it can provide funeral services in other states as allowed by law.
- III. This settlement does not prohibit Defendants from performing industry trade calls for a consumer located outside of North Carolina on behalf of individuals who died in North Carolina but whose final disposition will be outside of North Carolina; provided, however, that in performing trade calls, Defendants will inform consumers truthfully as to whether or not they are licensed in North Carolina and will provide consumers with the name and contact information of the North Carolina licensee performing funeral services in North Carolina. For the purposes of this settlement, a trade call is defined as a call from Defendants to a state-licensed funeral establishment to perform funeral services on behalf of a consumer. Defendants cannot make arrangements with consumers who live in North Carolina or with consumers (regardless of whether they are located inside or outside of North Carolina) on behalf of decedents whose final disposition will be in North Carolina.

IV. The Superior Court of Wake County, North Carolina shall retain jurisdiction for, and limited to, the purposes of enforcing this Consent Judgment, and the Defendants shall therefore submit to the jurisdiction of this Court if future issues of compliance with this Consent Judgment arise.

V. Any violation of this Consent Judgment shall be deemed contempt of court and shall be punishable by both the civil and criminal contempt powers of this Court upon proper showing.

VI. In the event that Defendants violate this Consent Judgment, the Plaintiff may then avail itself of all remedies provided by law or equity. In the event of a motion to enforce this Consent Judgment, and Plaintiff being the prevailing party, Plaintiff shall be entitled to an award for court costs and attorney fees as awarded by the Court.

- n. On September 16, 2016, the Consent Judgment was served on Defendants through counsel.
- o. Following their receipt of the Consent Judgment, Defendants have continued to engage in the unlicensed practice of funeral services, by holding themselves out to the consuming public as being able to provide funeral services in North Carolina.
- p. Furthermore, Heritage has continued to engage in the unlicensed practice of funeral service by making arrangements with North Carolina consumers on behalf of North Carolina decedents whose final disposition will be in North Carolina.
- q. Furthermore, AJ Damiano has continued to engage in the unlicensed practice of funeral service by managing the operations of an unlicensed establishment in Charlotte, NC, which holds itself out to the consuming public as Carolina Central Crematory.

Based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that:

 - ii. Defendants do not engage in the practice of funeral service unless and until such time as Defendants are issued a license by Plaintiff to engage in the practice of funeral service. The practice of funeral service includes the rendering of services as set out in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 90-210.20(k) and holding oneself out to the public as being able to provide funeral services.

Consent Judgment;
