Recent Property Insurance Changes – 2023 Legislative Session

The Florida Legislature passed insurance related legislation in its 2023 Legislative Session. The bills include changes that will impact you as an insurance policyholder. Some of the changes increase the oversight and accountability of insurance companies, enhance consumer protections and expand upon the My Safe Florida Home program. Additionally, there have been sweeping changes to the guidelines related to filing a lawsuit against an insurance company.

I've provided an overview of key changes online here:

I encourage you to thoroughly review the changes and contact your insurance agent if you have questions regarding your coverage.

Sincerely,

Tasha Carter
