Insight from Your Insurance Consumer Advocate

Full Coverage: Your Directory of Insurance Resources

To ensure you are aware of trusted resources to assist in making informed insurance decisions, I created Full Coverage: Your Directory of Insurance Resources. Full Coverage is an online clearinghouse of resources that provide an overview of multiple insurance products including homeowners insurance, life and health, renters, etc., and the most reliable resources to obtain information. Sources include the Florida Department of Financial Services Divisions of Consumer Services, Insurance Agent and Agency Services, Investigative and Forensic Services; the Office of Insurance Regulation; Florida Surplus Lines Service Office; Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services; and other trusted organizations.

Have insurance questions?

We have answers.

Full Coverage: Your Directory of Insurance Resources

Being an informed, knowledgeable consumer helps you effectively advocate for yourself.

BE YOUR OWN ADVOCATE

Full Coverage includes a section entitled 'Be Your Own Advocate,' which guides you through the process of purchasing insurance and the claims process. This section also suggests questions to ask or topics to discuss with your insurance agent, company, adjuster and other insurance professionals involved in the claims process.

Become savvy about insurance. You're your own best advocate!

BENEFITS OF HAVING INSURANCE

Unsure if you need insurance? The 'Benefits of Having Insurance' section of Full Coverage outlines the purpose of various types of insurance and what benefits they offer to potential policyholders.

My hope is that, after reviewing Full Coverage and accessing the resources, you will become more educated about insurance and more confident in advocating for yourself.
