

JOIN US!

Thursday, August 25th @ 2-3 p.m. ET

Florida's Insurance Consumer Advocate and the American Property Casualty Insurance Association's

CONTRACTOR FRAUD AND ABUSE PREVENTION

TWITTER CHAT

@TeamAPCIA

CONTRACTOR FRAUD AND ABUSE PREVENTION TWITTER CHAT

Thursday, August 25th @ 2-3 p.m. ET  @TeamAPCIA

TWITTER CHAT QUESTIONS

1. What are some ways you can verify that a contractor is legitimate before you sign a contract? #ContractorFraud
2. Peak hurricane season is beginning. What can you do before a storm approaches to be better protected against #contractorfraud?
3. If a storm strikes, how can you protect yourself from #contractorfraud and abuse during the recovery process?
4. Demanding full payment up front is big red flag. What are some other warning signs when it comes to payment and how can you protect yourself? #ContractorFraud
5. What are some suspicious ways contractors try to involve themselves in the insurance claim process? #ContractorFraud
6. In your state, is it legal to waive an insurance deductible? If not, how can you report it? #ContractorFraud
7. What about gift cards, rebates, etc.? In your state, are contractors allowed to offer financial incentives in exchange for conducting an inspection? #ContractorFraud
8. What are the risks of signing an Assignment of Benefits or Direction to Pay agreement? #ContractorFraud
9. Are there any questions or comments re: #contractorfraud that we didn't touch on?

Use #ContractorFraud and tag @TeamAPCIA and @YourFLVoice to connect.

Download the Guide: Don't Be A Victim! Prevent Contractor Fraud and Abuse
www.MyFloridaCFO.com/Division/ICA/FraudPrevention