Title: Getting Started on your Degree Program

Release Date: 10/31/2012

Getting Started on your Degree Program

Are you interested in earning your Associate's Degree in Fire Science?

Are you frustrated because you have completed many of the courses required for the degree program during your fire service career and you don't want to expend the time and money to retake these courses?

The Florida State Fire College Academic Instructor is available to discuss how your Fire Service Training and Education just might provide a head start towards earning your degree!

If you are attending a course at the Florida State Fire College and would like to speak with the Fire College's Academic Instructor; just stop by the receptionist's desk and ask for an appointment! More often than not, you will be meeting that day!

*You're not planning to take a course at the Fire College? Not a problem! You can e-mail the Academic Instructor and request an appointment to discuss your academic situation over the phone.

Be sure to provide the following information in your e-mail:

- Name:
- Phone Number:
- e-mail Address:
- Are you Career FF or a Volunteer FF?
- Your Department:
