ChartField Label	# Of Characters	Definition
Business Unit (BU)	5	Used to define an organization or organizational subset that is independent with regards to one or more accounting or operational functions
Budget Entity (BE)	8	Used to identify a unit or function which reflects the organization to which funds are specifically appropriated in the General Appropriations Act (GAA).
Category	6	Used as a dual-purpose code that either sub-defines appropriations or defines a revenue source.
State Program (SP)	10	Used to identify an aggregation of generally related objectives, which are recognized statewide.
Fund	5	Used by organizations to control, monitor, segregate and report on specific resources allocated/budgeted for a specific purpose and used to denote cash or money
Organization	10	Used to capture financial information according to an approved organizational structure
Contract	10	Used to capture expenditure and revenue transactions for two party agreements
Other Accumulator (OA)	5	Used to track optional organizational reporting, cost pools, revenues, or other specific use
Agency Unique (AU)	10	Used to track optional details for organizational reporting or organizational specific use
Account	6	Used to capture detailed transactional data and is required on every transaction
Project	15	Used to capture a planned undertaking, having a finite beginning and a finite ending, for which expenditures/costs and revenues are to be tracked
Activity (Project-related ChartField)	15	Used to track specific tasks that make up a Project and records transactional details; required with a Project value
Source Type (Project-related ChartField)	5	Used to identify the purpose or origin of a transaction; not required
Project Category (Project-related ChartField)	5	Used to provide more flexibility and granularity in tracking and analyzing costs; not required
Subcategory (Project-related ChartField)	5	Used to additional flexibility and granularity in tracking and analyzing costs; not required